DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

This Notice of Allowance is in response to the claim amendments dated 6/6/11.

Claims 105-124 and 126-143 of the 6/6/11 copy of the claims are allowed.

Examiner's Statement of Reason's for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Examiner notes that eight interviews were made on this case. Of these, four interviews were in person.

Examiner notes that an Allowance conference with Eric Stamber was made on February 9, 2011.

Examiner notes that an EIC search was requested on April 5, 2011.

Examiner notes that the Examiner was reversed by the BPAI on 9/9/2004. However, the original Examiner (different from the present Examiner) decided to reopen.

Examiner notes that the BPAI affirmed the Examiner on 12/31/2009. However, the Applicant filed an RCE with significant claim amendments. And, subsequent claim amendments have overcome the prior art.

Examiner notes that the 6/6/11 claim amendments made the independent claims consistent as to the combination of features that make the invention allowable.

Examiner notes that the parent 09/306,077 was found allowable and is patent 6,298,332. And, the allowable features of the parent patent, as seen in representative claim 1, are also found in the presently allowed application.

And, Examiner found the Applicant's early priority date of May 6, 1999 for the combination of features in the independent claims to be allowable over the prior art. Particularly, a CD-ROM attached to a product at a point of sale where the CD-ROM is removable from the product after the product has been purchased and the CD-ROM has two or more parties listed on it and the CD-ROM has vendor information and the CD-ROM is used to connect over a network to further vendor information. And, the feature of the vendor information being different than the product the CD-ROM is attached to is also critical. That is, in regards to this last feature of "the vendor information is substantively distinct from the product" in the claim, the vendor information is not just product information on the product purchased. Rather, the vendor information is information distinct from the product purchased.

Examiner found this combination of features to go past the cited 103 rejection with Streich in view of Bloom. And, Examiner could not find other prior art to read on this combination of features.

Hence, claims 105-124 and 126-143 of the 6/6/11 copy of the claims were found allowable.
